

To identify your location. Let's look at the tail of the southern cross and draw a line about 4.5 times the size from the tip to the tail to arrive at the "South Celeste Pole".